PROVA N. 4

Data protection responsibilities under the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) are essential for ensuring the privacy and security of personal information. Organizations that handle personal data must follow strict guidelines to protect this data. They need to obtain clear consent from individuals before collecting their data and use it only for specified purposes. Companies must also implement strong security measures to prevent data breaches and unauthorized access. Additionally, organizations are responsible for allowing individuals to access, correct, and delete their data upon request. Regular audits and compliance checks are necessary to ensure that data protection practices meet GDPR standards.
